FR. CARLITO'S CORNER

Solemnity of the Holy Trinity
John 3: 16-18
May 31, 2026

Today the Church celebrates the great feast of the Most Holy Trinity -- the mystery that God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. One God, three Divine Persons. It is the deepest mystery of our faith, and honestly, no human mind can fully explain it. However, the Holy Trinity is not a puzzle to be solved --it is relationship to be part of.

Theological teachings can seem abstract or distant from everyday life. But the Holy Trinity tells us something very practical and beautiful about God -- God is love. For all eternity, the Father loves the Son, the Son receives and returns that love, and the Holy Spirit is the living bond of love between them. At the center of the universe is not loneliness, not isolation, not power, not competition - but LOVE and COMMUNION. The word "communion" is the sharing of intimate thoughts and feelings or a deep, spiritual rapport with another. In our religion, communion is when we receive the Body and Blood of Christ and remember Christ's sacrifice. This is really a beautiful word when we contemplate its meaning!

The psychological and spiritual opposite of communion is isolation. Isolation is detachment. That is why isolation wounds us so deeply. And it is also why forgiveness is so important. We all make mistakes and will continue to make mistakes; we are human. But our families, friendships, fellow parishioners, and acts of charity are sacred. It is imperative to forgive and love selflessly and unconditionally. It is importantly to understand that God reveals Himself as the Trinity in an effort to draw us close and to enter into a personal relationship with us as His daughters and sons."

God is not distant from our pain and struggles. The Father sees us with tenderness and kindness. The Son walks with us in our suffering. The Holy Spirit gives us grace when our strength runs out. Occasionally we feel tired, burdened, and spiritually worn out. The Feast of the Holy Trinity reminds us that we are never alone. The very life of God has been poured into our hearts through baptism.

In many ways, we live in a divided world that can seem to be filled with anger, conflict and suspicion. Christians are called to reflect the communion and unity of the Holy Trinity. Our homes, our parishes, and our communities should become places of service, mercy, forgiveness, reconciliation, and patience. Remember who God is, and who you are called to become: a person who lives in love, rooted in the Father, united with Christ, and filled with the Holy Spirit.
