FR. CARLITO'S CORNER

June 28, 2026
Mt. 10:37-42

The reading centers on radical discipleship, challenging us to place Christ above all else, take up our cross and welcome others in His name. Jesus teaches that loving Him comes before even our closest family ties. He is not asking us to reject our families, but rather to ensure our ultimate allegiance and identity are anchored in God. To truly find our lives and purpose, we must be willing to "lose" them by surrendering to God's will and carrying our crosses. Jesus assures us that even the smallest act of charity—"such as offering a cup of cold water to a disciple" will not lose its reward. By welcoming those who serve the Lord (the prophet or righteous man), we share in their mission and blessings. "Whoever receives you, receives me, and whoever receives me, receives the One who sent me."

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus—June 12

Immaculate Heart of Mary—June 13

Heart of Jesus, burning with love,
Heart of Mary, full of compassion,
hear our prayers and lead us to the peace of Heaven.
Amen
